Please complete it with the new bank details, sign it and take a photo of yourself holding the declaration and your ID document in the designated area.

For bank accounts with more than one holder, please take separate individual photos.

Indicate reason for the change of linked bank account: _____

Dear BullionVault,

I hereby authorize you to break my BullionVault bank link and to install my CurrencyFair account as the new linked funding source and destination for return of my funds from BullionVault.

I understand that if incomplete data is supplied with payments to BullionVault there may be delay both to assigning deposits to my BullionVault account and to subsequent return of funds.

In order to mitigate this risk, I will upload to my BullionVault online account a document proving the funds came from my CurrencyFair account following each deposit.

I assume full responsibility for the changing of the link from my bank account to my CurrencyFair account and for use of my CurrencyFair account.
